

Monica Hallahan, Lead Technical Recruiter

Monica brings over 20 years of business experience with a specialty in creating and building long lasting relationships. She prides herself in her outstanding customer service and communication skills, along with being a true team player. In regards to recruiting, Monica specializes in Life Sciences & Technology (Quality, Regulatory, Validation & Clinical) as well as Engineering (Software, Hardware, Mechanical & Test.) Monica holds an Associates Degree in Business Management from Marian Court College. She resides in Southern NH with her husband, two daughters and two dogs.